What is Van Deventer-Maas Stichting?

Van Deventer-Maas Stichting is a private foundation with a mission to support the education of Indonesian people.

The stichting was founded in 1947 pursuant to a provision in the last will of Mrs. Elisabeth Maas, widow of Mr. Coen van Deventer.

In 1979 the Van Deventer-Maas Stichting merged with the Tjandi Stichting (founded in 1913) and the Van Deventer Stichting (founded in 1917, thereby absorbing the Kartini Foundation, which had been founded in 1913).

Mr. Van Deventer, who was critical of the unequal financial relationship between the Netherlands and its colony, wrote an article 'Debt of Honor' and initiated "ethical policy", focusing on the development and edification of the Indonesian people.

The couple was wealthy and childless. They decided to make their wealth available for the personal development of the Indonesian people. One of the supports given is scholarships for young, talented and financially deprived students.
